

HAZWOPER Spill Response Technician

CCR T8 5192 (e),(8); (q),(8) and 29 CFR 1910.120 (e),(8); (q),(8)

24hr. Initial / 8hr. Refresher

Students will receive:

-Student Manual/Emergency Response Guidebook (ERG)

-Certificate of Completion/Perforated Wallet Card

Contact Hours Earned.

Program Objective

The goal of this course is to provide essential training to workers required to recognize emergencies involving hazardous materials and respond in an aggressive role to control, contain and clean up a spill. Technicians are qualified to wear Level A, B or C protection.

Initial Level Program Agenda

Day 1

- Introduction
- Regulatory Overview
- Emergency Response Planning and IC
- Medical Surveillance
- Introduction to Hazardous Materials
- Fire Chemistry

Day 2

- Toxicology
- Heat Stress
- Chemical Protective Clothing
- Respiratory Protection
- Levels of Protection
- Site Control and Decontamination
- ERG, NIOSH Pocket Guidebooks

Day 3

- Chemical Spill Response and Cleanup
- Table Top Training Exercises
- Facility Walk Through (onsite only)
- Hands-on Drills
- Final Exam

Refresher Level Program Agenda

- Introduction
- Regulatory Overview
- Emergency Response Planning and IC
- Medical Surveillance
- Introduction to Hazardous Materials
- Fire Chemistry
- Toxicology
- Heat Stress
- Chemical Protective Clothing
- Respiratory Protection
- Levels of Protection
- Site control and Decon
- Chemical Spill Response and Cleanup
- Exercises and tabletops
- Final Exam

PROTECTING OUR WORKFORCE FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS

855-2-EHSINC ~ [855-234-7462]

ehsInternational.org