

Fall Protection Training

Falls remain a leading cause of death on the jobsite.
Get your team certified before it becomes a citation.

The Case for Fall Protection

Falls from elevation continue to be one of the top causes of death for American construction workers, and OSHA requires more than good intentions — clean, dry work areas, the right PPE, and documented training on the hazards your crew actually faces. A gap in any one of those is a gap OSHA will find first.

GET TRAINED ON FALL PROTECTION TODAY →

For over 25 years, ehsInc has also provided top services in other categories like:

- Written Program Development
- Jobsite Inspections & Job Hazard Analyses (JHAs)
- Customized Training Curriculum Development
- Fall Protection System Assessments
- Confined Space Hazard Classifications
- Lockout/Tagout and Hazardous Energy Control
- Noise Exposure Assessments
- Ergonomic & Biological Hazard Assessments

And more

See It in Action

See what fall protection training looks like on-site — hazard recognition, proper equipment use, and hands-on instruction — before you enroll your team.

However you need us —
we're built to flex around your team.

IN-PERSON ON-SITE TRAINING

VIRTUAL INSTRUCTOR-LED TRAINING

EXPERT EHS CONSULTING

GET AHEAD OF THE NEXT INSPECTION

Fall protection training isn't a someday item — it's what stands between your team and a citation. Get your team certified now.

RESERVE YOUR TEAM'S TRAINING SPOT →

EHSINC.ORG

2026

